SCHOOL DISTRICT OF ALTOONA

PRESS RELEASE

Altoona superintendent Greg Fahrman to retire June 30, 2012

Altoona, October 20, 2011. August 30, was the last opening day staff meeting for Altoona superintendent Greg Fahrman. On October 20, superintendent Fahrman announced his retirement at the end of the current school year on June 30, 2012.

Fahrman has served as School District of Altoona superintendent for ten years, but has been a district staff member for 17 years. His career with the Altoona school district began in 1995 when he was hired as the Altoona Middle School principal.

Fahrman came to the Altoona school district with 17 total years experience as a teacher and principal having served as the principal and assistant principal at Parkview Junior/Senior High School in Orfordville, Wisconsin.

A native of the Chippewa Valley, Fahrman is a graduate of Eau Claire North and UW-Eau Claire.

In the letter announcing his retirement, Fahrman thanked the board for their support. "Thank you so much for the opportunity to work in this remarkable school district where I have had your support. I have always boasted to others about the Altoona school board and how fortunate I have been to work in such a trusting relationship with people who have always been focused on what is best for students of all ages."
